

Child's Name

Date of Birth

#1-POSITIVE SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

Expected Age Level for Achievement of skill	Directions (+) Displays Skill (-) Does not Display Skill  1. BEGIN Tracking Near 50% of the Child's Chronological Age 2. Work Backwards Until you get 3 Consecutive (+) ...Then Move Forward... 3. STOP After 3 Consecutive (-) 4. Functional Age is the Age Level at the Last (+)... Before the 3 Consecutive (-)	Date of Administration			Mark Approx. Functional Age for Child at Time of Admin.
		Entry	Exit
		Chronological Age at Administration
		Entry	Exit
		Administration Trials
	SKILL	Entry	Exit	Descriptors:	Functional Age
1 Month	Enjoys being held and cuddled			Child is content when held
	Looks at caregivers eyes when awake and being held			Child is aware of adult holding them and will look at them making eye contact
	Quiets soon after being picked up
2 Months	Will vocalize, move body and establish eye contact, smile in response to adult interaction
3 Months	Coos, gurgles and squeals when awake			While alone or in response to interaction
4 Months	Disturbed by an angry or loud voice or sound			May cry or startle when a loud noise, sound or voice is heard
	Begins to mouth objects
5 Months	Laughs out loud
	Turns head towards familiar voice or sounds
6 Months	Stranger anxiety may begin			Child will cry or cling to mother when new people are present
	Holds arms out to be picked up
7 Months	Imitates pat a cake, peek a boo, or bye- bye			Any or all- rcv credit
	Imitates mouth games; cough, lip smack, or tongue click			Will mimic sounds made by adult such as coughing, clearing throat, raspberry sounds, spitting or clicking of tongue, any or all.
	Gets excited when sees self in mirror			Will smile, kick, or wave hands in excitement when see self in mirror
8 Months	Responds to name and simple requests; eat, wave bye-bye
	Smiles spontaneously			Will smile on own either at someone or for no reason

Child's Name*Date of Birth*#1-POSITIVE SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

		Entry	Exit	Descriptors:	Functional age
8 Months	Sociable and outgoing with caregiver, family and siblings
9 Months	Babbles and jabbers to initiate interactions with people
	Responds to name with head turned, eye contact and a smile
10 Months	Waves "bye-bye"
	Enjoys rhymes and simple songs
11 Months	Repeats behaviors that get attention			Child will continue to do actions that family laughs at
	Stops activity briefly when told, "NO"			Will look at adult and stop when told, "No", but may continue after looking at adult
12 Months	Hands toy to adult on request			When adults hand held out
	Claps hands on request
13-14 Months	Wants to be near adults
15 Months	Enjoys being held and read to
	Gets in to "trouble" when left alone			Will investigate and get in to things when left alone
	Shows a variety of emotions; happy, mad, sad
16 Months	Imitates grown up activities (sweeping, cleaning or wiping)
17 Months	Helps pick up toys and puts away
18 Months	Enjoys songs and rhymes, tries to join in
	Temper tantrums are common, but manageable			Child will eventually calm and resume activities
	Plays parallel to others			Plays next to another child, but necessarily with other child
21 Months	Enjoys helping around the house with simple tasks; putting trash in trashcan or wiping a table
22 Months	Aware of strangers, but anxiety disappears			Doesn't cry or get upset when strangers are present
	Showing some independence; may not want as much help dressing, eating etc			Wants to do things on own
24 Months	Claims ownership of their things; may say, "mine" or take their toys away from others
	Initiates own play activities at times			Can keep self busy playing
	Seems aware of reciprocal in exchange in a conversation			Know they have to answer or continue conversation when spoken to
25 Months	Talks about self; likes and dislikes
	Takes an interest in other kids

Child's Name

Date of Birth

#1-POSITIVE SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

		Entry	Exit	Descriptors:	Functional Age
28 Months	May be physically aggressive when frustrated
30 Months	Gives full name when asked
	Becomes very talkative with others
33 Months	Names or points to self in a photograph
	Begins associative play activities			May play unorganized games with other children.
34 Months	Imaginative play may begin; block is a boat etc...
35 Months	Shows signs of empathy and caring for others			May hug a crying child
36 Months	Plays simple group games with adults help (ring a round the rosy) etc..

Birth-36 Months/Checklist/Cognitive, Social and Emotional created 12/12/05jam.....revised 8/28/06